

What are the modules?

Frontrunn3rs – <http://fr3.frontrunners.dk>

Module 1

Hello everybody, I am very happy to welcome you all back to Frontrunn3rs. Within module 1, running from September to December 2007, from the 1st week to 15th week, the topics that we have covered ranging from Project Management, Leadership, Audism and many more.

If you want to know more about our work and information in module one, you can always look through our Frontrunn3rs website.

At the end of module 1, there were 14 of us but now the group is split into two groups. Eight participants will continue with the rest of the Frontrunn3rs course, however the 6 participants are unfortunately unable to continue, the reason for this is due to each of these participants having other commitments such as work, continuing their education in university, or lastly unable to obtain funding support.

Module 2

During the 2nd module, the remaining eight participants continuing with Frontrunn3rs course are not undergoing any lessons as each one of us carry out our own project work. Throughout the 1st module, we all learnt the content and the planning, deliverance of Project Management, ready to be put into practice in the 2nd module from December 2007 to February 2008. All of the remaining Frontrunn3rs participants return to their countries or other countries to perform out their projects. These projects ranging from several different examples, such as focusing on Sign Language, involved within the Deaf Associations, working in Developing Countries and constructing internet/website and many more.

Module 3

Eight of us returned to Castberggård, after completing both module 1 and 2, with delight and greetings also exchanging our experiences with our project work.

From now on, in module 3, many new topics to be learnt and discussed, so keep a close eye on these new topics yourselves.
