

Week 12

Frontrunn3rs – <http://fr3.frontrunners.dk>

Hello !

Day 01

Today is the week 12.

Monday.

During that night, we arrive at Castberggaard with fatigue because of the location in Copenhagen (week 11). We are obliged to return to the course with Flip at 10:30 on the evaluation of Copenhagen. This allows us to compare with the countries of each member of Frontrunners. Then in the afternoon, we will see during the procedure to find a solution to the problem. There were 9 steps to resolve the problem. To find out more, there is a film that spends on this theme. After the course, there are 3 separate groups currently working on its projects. The evening, Bengie and Thora proposing a presentation on Germany. They cite two parts: the culture, the life of Germany and the world of the deaf. Now, we know more about Germany.

Day 02

Today, Tuesday.

We are tired. Are we going to still work? No! Exhausting! We change the program today is the special program with the atmosphere, the creative imagination. This is the day of art in glass. Come see...

How do you make art glass? First, we take the glass then you put the pieces of coloured glass. We heated the glass with a temperature of 200 ° C for one day. After this warm-up, takes on the subject of form to distort the window. These glass will become a beautiful art!

Day 03

Today, Wednesday.

The relaxation, rest, it is finished! It makes referrals to the work! Normally there is a speaker who will come but it is cancelled due to sick! It modifies the program. We have already worked on the theorem Markku Jokinen; we will resume the work continuing discussions on this theory. We were unable to finish because of the weather. If everything is concluded, it will become the theory of Frontrunners III. We shall wait and see! In the afternoon, two separate groups to work on the web or project. The evening, Bengie and Thora expose their TV film in Germany reflecting the international sign language.

Day 04

Today, Thursday.

A deaf, Danish, Kasper just give a lecture on two themes: World Bank statistics on the disabled and the deaf. We ask you a question: statistics help make it possible for associations to go forward and achieve its goals? For more information, there are two films: interview and explanations.

The hour approaches, we are going to Frankfurt!! Oh dear, we will prepare for starting berths in Frankfurt.

Day 05

Here in Frankfurt, it is raining, it's cold. Today is Friday. This is not a magic that I arrived in Frankfurt all of a sudden. We just happen all night. We will sleep in the family of Bengie. We will visit the city of Frankfurt with the two guides Bengie and Thora are delighted to welcome us. It will prepare for tomorrow. Come see tomorrow!

Day 06

Today, Saturday, again in Frankfurt.

Here is the Deaf Youth Festival in Germany. There are 500 participants who came with several youth from the International. The goal is to increase knowledge and provide energy. There are 6 modules:

- a workshop for children and babies
- a workshop on sign language
- a conference room on the discovery of the World
- a workshop for dancing.
- a conference room on small issues
- a conference room on the major issues.

Day 07

Today, Sunday.

What is it? Frankfurt, it is finished, we thank the family of Bengie for accommodation. They are left to the north, where there were significant rain. Watch carefully:

It's terrible. Fortunately, we stop in Remscheid among family Giuseppe that welcomes us in a wonderful restaurant. We see it as a banquet like the story of Ferdinand Berthier with candles, chairs... We exchanged on the differences themes. While eating, we will leave to Castberggaard. We leave the truck then we fall into sleep.

Come the weekend, 13 to learn more what happens then!
